AIRPORT TRANSFERS TO GRANADA.

Granada International Airport (GRX) (<https://granadaairport.com/>) works mainly with the Spanish airline IBERIA and offers flights to national destinations, such as Madrid, Barcelona, Palma Bilbao and Tenerife; and international, such as London, Paris, Milan etc.

Bus:

The option chosen by most travelers is the bus. The company in charge of this service is Alsa and there is usually a bus available thirty minutes after the landing of each flight. The ticket costs three euros and you can buy it directly on the bus. The journey is about 45 minutes and there are stops at several central points of Granada, including the Bus Station. At the bus station you can take the Metropolitan of Granada to the "Palacio de Deportes" stop very close to the congress hotel, at the same metro stop you can buy tickets:
.- Single ticket 1.35
.- Bonus of 5 euros, the ticket goes to 0.82 and with it you can move around the city every day of the congress.

Cab:

You can take a taxi from the airport to the hotel or anywhere in the city. The road trip to the center of Granada is about 30 minutes and the fare is between 25 and 30 euros from Monday to Friday and 35 euros on weekends.
